Let's Start!

Let's set the time for an interview. Are you a morning person or an afternoon person?

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk on the phone in a formal situation.
- I can make and respond to requests.

Ask your partner:

- When do you prefer to work? In the morning, afternoon or evening? Why?
- When is the best time of day for you to be interviewed? Why?

Let's Explore!

After a successful interview there is an onboarding session.

* "Onboarding" is the word used in business to talk about taking in and training new team members.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Mr. Warren: Let's say 10 a.m. tomorrow for the interview.
Peter: I can't wait to come! I am very interested in design, planning and data entry.
Mr. Warren: Do you know where the office is?
Peter: It's near the art gallery, isn't it?
Mr. Warren: Yes. We are at 135 Main Street. Come to the 7th floor. It's suite 715.
Peter: Yes, I know that area. I go to the gym near there.
Mr. Warren: Please arrange to come early to fill out a pre-interview form.
Peter: OK. How early would you like me to be there?
Mr. Warren: Plan to be 20 minutes early.
Peter: You can expect me to be there at 9:40.
Mr. Warren: Good. See you then, Peter. Goodbye.
Peter: Yesssss!

Let's Practice!

Peter gets information about his interview.

Instructions: Select all the correct answers.

Which phrases are about Peter's job interview?

- ☐ Let's say 10 a.m.
- ☐ I go to the gym.
- ☐ It's near the art gallery, isn't it?
- ☐ See you then.
- ☐ Goodbye.
- ☐ Arrange to come early.
