

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Welcome aboard! Peter is ready to start his internship.

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the controlled vowel sound or.
- I can say simple sentences.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Ask your partner:

- Do you have a job? If not, do you want one?
- What forms do you think you will fill out when starting a new job?

Let's Explore!

Listen to Peter and the clerk talk in the HR department.

* "HR" stands for Human Resources.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Clerk: Peter, you need to complete these forms before you start.
Peter: No problem. Could you please pass me a pen?
Clerk: Here you go.
Peter: Thank you. I am very excited to start my internship.
Clerk: Welcome aboard! Do you know what you are doing yet?
Peter: Well ... I know I have to sort the mail.
Clerk: What else?
Peter: I'm not sure, but I am hoping to write reports and formal e-mails.
Clerk: How long are you staying with us?
Peter: Six months, maybe more if I impress my boss.
Clerk: I look forward to seeing you in the halls.
Peter: Thanks, and here's the form.
Clerk: OK ... everything is filled out except for your cell phone number.
Peter: Oops ... sorry. There you go.
Clerk: I am e-mailing your boss to tell him you are ready to work.
Peter: Thanks ... I guess.

Let's Practice!

Time to practice words with the or sound!

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use words from the word bank.

1. Welcome _____!
2. You need to complete these _____ before you start.
3. I know I have to _____ the mail.
4. Thanks, and here's the business _____.
5. I'm not sure but I am hoping to write _____ and _____ emails.

Word Bank

form sort reports aboard formal forms

Let's Practice!

Do you remember the conversation between Peter and the clerk?

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use: are doing, pass, to start, you, to sort.

Peter: No problem. Could you please _____ me a pen?

Clerk: Here _____ go.

Peter: Thank you. I am very excited _____ my internship.

Clerk: Welcome aboard! Do you know what you _____ yet?

Peter: Well ... I know I have _____ the mail ...

Extension Activity

Imagine you are the onboarding clerk at a company. You are talking to a new intern. Remember: You use formal language in a business environment.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- You are a new intern in a company. With a partner, write down 5 questions each that you would ask the clerk about your job.
- Use capital letters and question marks.
- Ask your partner your questions.
- Switch roles with your partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write questions to inquire about a job description.

☐ ☐

I ask questions on job information I need.

☐ ☐

I answer questions with proper information about a job.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- aboard (adverb): on a team, company or group
e.g. Welcome aboard!
- to sort (verb): to organize
e.g. I have to sort the mail.
- hall (noun): the area you walk down between rooms
e.g. I look forward to seeing you in the halls.
- internship (noun): an unpaid training position
e.g. I am very excited to start my internship.
- to impress (verb): to show you can do something well e.g. Six months, maybe more if I impress my boss.

Learning Points

R-Controlled Vowel - OR

The letters or can have the same sound as er in many common words.

Example: world, word and work

The sound is the same when it doesn't have the main stress.

*Example: color, horror

Practice saying these words:

born, formal, cork, torn, sort, from

