Let's Start!

What things do people do at work?

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can ask for information at work.
- I can ask and say what people are doing.

Ask your partner:

- What things does your teacher do at work?
- What are your family members doing today?

Let's Explore!

What tasks does Peter have to complete today?

* "Tasks" are pieces of work to do.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Silvia: Peter, what are you doing?
Peter: I'm setting up my desk. Do you need help?
Silvia: Yes. I'm sending you a link to my website.
Peter: Where are you sending the link?
Silvia: I'm e-mailing it to your new company e-mail address:
 peterj@mechatech.com.
Peter: Here it is. What do you need me to do?
Silvia: Read through the website. Type up some comments. Say what works and what doesn't.
Peter: Okay.
Silvia: I'm also sending you an image file. Please go through all of the images and catalog them.
Peter: When do you want this done?
Silvia: Call me in a couple of hours. I can see how you are doing then.
Peter: 1000 images? Oh boy!

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Asking For Information at Work

When you ask for information at work you can use the Simple Present tense or the Present Continuous tense, along with Wh-questions.

The tense depends on the time.

For things in general - use the Simple Present tense

For things now or around now - use the Present Continuous tense.

Simple Present (in general)	Present Continuous (now or around now)
What do you do at your job?	What are you doing?
Do you need help?	Where are you sending the link?
When do you want this done?	When are we cataloging the images?
